

Finnish Immigrant 1890 - 1935 — a

75-80% of the Finnish women were single when they emigrated to Canada. Finland, 1927.

Photo: National Museum of Finland.

Women in Canada, Photo Essay

by *Varpu
Lindström-Best*

Finnish women were well recognized for their hunting skills. Northern Ontario, c. 1900. Photo: Multicultural History Society of Ontario/ Ontario Archives.

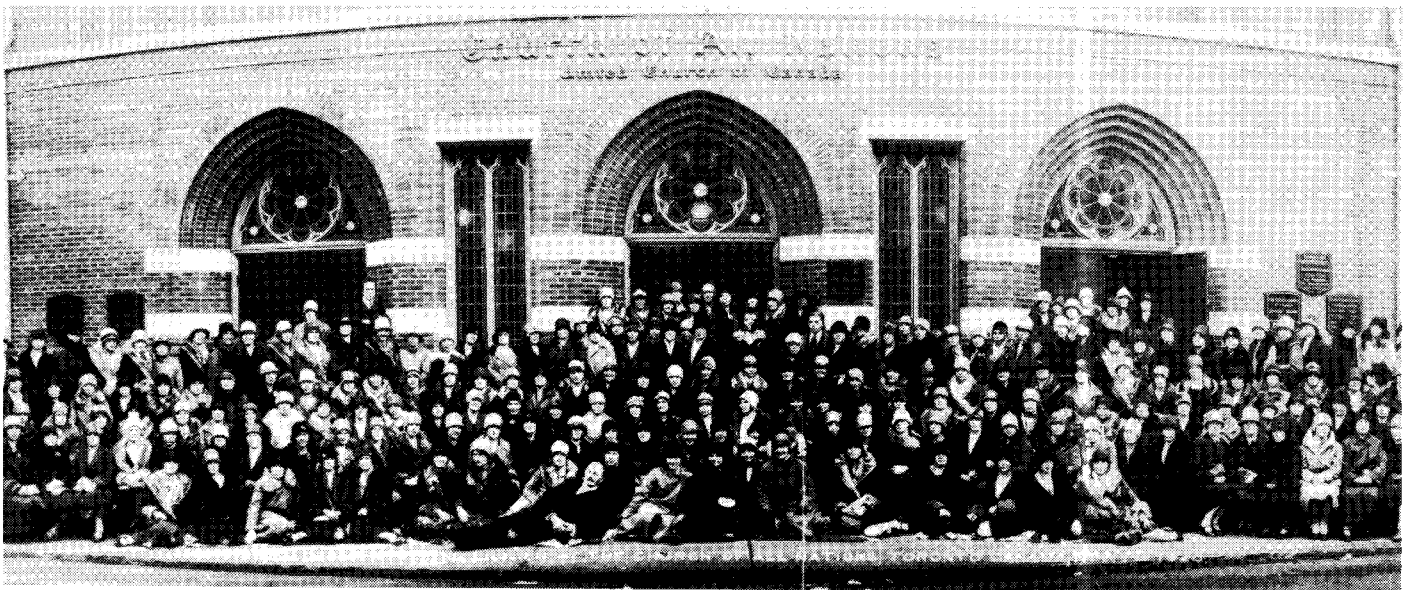

J.K. and Sanna-Liisa Lauttamus. First Finnish couple to settle in New Finland, Saskatchewan in 1890. Photo:Saskatchewan Archives.

Finnish pioneers clearing the bush north of Port Arthur, 1905. Photo: Multicultural History Society of Ontario.

Mrs. Lujanen delivered mail by walking 30 km thrice weekly. Her salary: $1 a week.
Photo: Multicultural History Society of Ontario.

Toronto's Finnish maids after their English lessons in front of the Church of All Nations of the United Church of Canada, 1928 . Photo: Multicultural History Society of Ontario.