JOANNA M. WESTON

To My Daughters

the daughters that I have mix sons with tea and beer and fill tall cups
with bridal champagne

these are the girls
I dreamed into life
with wisteria roses
and wild sunflowers

they sprang out of books singing contemporary jazz juggling baskets of muffins tennis balls and cookies

these precious girls
painted in blue silk
tied with white ribbons laugh from my heart frame

Joanna M. Weston is married with one cat, multiple spiders, a herd of deer, and two derelict hen houses. Her most recent poetry collection, A Bedroom of Searchlights, was published in spring 2016 by Inanna Publications.
