<sup>5</sup>The tourist population of Banff remains predominately white. Visitors come primarily from the United States, England and Japan (see Hock and Sisco). <sup>6</sup>Maclear notes that the peak will be re-named after the Chinese-Canadian climber who was the first to reach its summit.

<sup>7</sup>The Foundation to Commemorate Chinese Railroad Workers in Canada erected a $150,000 monument in Toronto by the Skydome in 1989 to commemorate the 17,000 Chinese men who laboured constructing the railway and the 4,000 who died at this task. Joel Baglole, "Wreath laid for railway workers: 17,000 Chinese were 'pioneers'" in The Toronto Star, Friday, July 2, 1999; B4.

CAROL A. ADAMS

Time After Time

Time after time
I am seduced by the art work of nature

It captivates me with swift sketches of Red Cardinals on a still canvas of air, entices me in the black velvet brush stroke of a river meandering
through snowy ravines,
captures me beside ocean whitecaps highlighting against a backdrop of night sky

More and more, as I ponder the constancy of beauty, nature lies in wait to tempt me with design in the midst of a tapestry that is never complete.

Carol A. Adams's poetry appears earlier in this volume.
